Teachers of Panhandle Challenge Statement Made in Political Ad

More than 20,000 copies of the following letter have been printed by The News and sent to teachers and others interested in education in this area:

To Our Teacher Friends:

An advertisement in the Amarillo Globe-Times, July 23, 1954, claimed that members of the Texas State Teachers Association were "almost 100 per cent" for Ralph Yarborough. A telephone call by Superintendent Joe Gibson, of the Canyon Public Schools, to Charles Tennyson, Executive Secretary of the Association, revealed that the association had endorsed no candidate. Further investigation proves that the ad in question was a flagrant misrepresentation of the truth.

The record of Governor Allan Shivers is one of long and generous support of education in Texas. As veteran members of the profession and friends of education generally, we respectfully call the attention of the teachers and school patrons to the following facts.

In his career as State Senator, Lieutenant-Governor, and Governor, Allan Shivers has sponsored, supported or signed every major piece of school legislation during the last 20 years.

During his five years as Governor the average salary of public school teachers has increased more than $1,100.

The teacher retirement program has been expanded.

Public instruction for handicapped children and state services generally have been made available.

The allotment of State funds to Amarillo College was substantially increased twice under Governor Shivers.

Texas Technological College has had its appropriation increased from $1,786,498 in 1948 to $2,461,840 in 1954 for a net increase of 37.8% exclusive of funds for its Museum.

New buildings and permanent improvements costing over $1,500,000 have been completed or are under way on the West Texas State campus. Faculty salaries have been increased. The total appropriations have been raised from $557,579 in 1949 to more than $764,000 under Governor Shivers, or an increase of 37% in only five years!

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum has received $161,800 in itemized state support during the five years of Governor Shivers' administration. It had received no direct appropriation whatever during the previous 28 years of its existence.

The record shows that no Gov-

Rain Falls Here Amount to 1.58

Rain over the week-end totaled 1.58 inches in Canyon.

Added to this was a shower in Canyon Wednesday which amounted to .30 of an inch, or 1.88 inches for the week which ended Tuesday.

According to reports, all parts of Randall county received rain from the downpour. The rain did not fall in floods in any section of the county at any time. The gentle fall of moisture allowed every drop of the rain to soak into the thirsty ground which had received little or no rain since the first part of June.

The rain will have a most desirable effect upon the row crop and the pastures of the Panhandle. The maize crop should come out to make a pretty fair yield following the rains. Pasture lands will be greatly benefited.

There was not such a heavy rain south of Randall county as fell locally. The rains became heavier to the north of the city, with spots reporting as much as three inches.

Dr. Fred Oberst of the government chemical plant near Baltimore, Md., spent the week-end here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Oberst, Sr. He was on his way to New Mexico where will be made.

Reorganization Of Girl Scout Work Undertaken

On Thursday evening, August 26, parents of Girl Scouts, present or future, are invited to meet at the Girl Scout Hut on Third Avenue to help clean the building and grounds in anticipation of an active year's work in Scouting.

Bring sandwiches for a picnic supper. Coffee will be served.

Women should bring cleaning material to clean the inside of the building. Men should bring hammers and saws for repairing the building and yard tools to clean the grounds.

Leaders, whose names will be published later, have been selected and are ready to work with several organizations of girls from the second through the sixth grades and are backing this work project for Thursday.

Organizations for the older girls will be set up later.

If you have any interest in your daughter working in this well supervised, worthy work and entertainment, show your interest by coming out Thursday evening at 6 o'clock with your lunch and working equipment and help put this house into a usable condition.

Bank Will Be Closed Election

The First National Bank will be closed Saturday for the second primary election. President L. W. Cole of the Bank is election judge for this primary, the same as he served in the first primary.

The Bank will be opened as usual on Monday morning.

Mrs. M. L. Tanner and son, Lee, visited in the W. T. Davis home in July and Lee has spent the summer. He left for home in Winter Haven, Fla., Wednesday by plane.

Senator Clint Small Writes For Governor Allan Shivers Campaign

The following letter was received from former Senator Clint C. Small of Austin regarding the present campaign:

I wish to make a short statement on behalf of Governor Allan Shivers in his campaign for reelection as Governor of this State. I am for Governor Shivers because during his entire political career he has placed the honor, the integrity and the welfare of the State of Texas above every other consideration and particularly so when it became his duty as Governor to defend Texas tidelands against Federal encroachment.

Lately his opponent has devoted much time and effort to attacks on Governor Shivers' record, which, in my opinion, are wholly unwarranted in truth and in fact. Having watched and heard these smear tactics, I felt compelled to report to the voters of this State some of my personal knowledge in regard to Mr. Yarborough's record on land matters. A candidate's consistent action over a period of 25 years pretty well indicates how he thinks and feels on a given subject.

I have had occasion to personally observe candidate Yarborough in action over the past 25 years. He has been found to be on the side of those who attempted to invalidate and destroy long-established land titles. In short, Mr. Yarborough has given aid and comfort to the practicing "title buster." As Assistant Attorney General of Texas in charge of land matters, Mr. Yarborough was in the vanguard of those who made vicious assaults upon private land titles in this State. He encouraged and abetted the "vacancy hunters" by throwing the prestige of the Attorney General's office behind their efforts. At all times he espoused the idea that the State should be privileged to take advantage of its own errors in order to destroy the citizen's title to his land.

Yarborough's philosophy as Assistant Attorney General was that "all doubts shall be resolved in favor of the State and against the individual landowners." He wrote this "superiority of the State" idea into many opinions delivered to the General Land Office over his signature. He went so far as to

Mrs. Oswald Cole and granddaughter, Tommy Jo Simpson of Rule visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Murray and at Palo Duro Club with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blackburn and children. Mr. and Mrs. Murray took them back to Rule Friday.

Bitter Campaign for Governor Waged by Two Candidates

Saturday of this week will be the second primary in Texas. Great interest is being shown in the outcome of the vote, since it is in this election that a Governor will be selected for Texas.

This campaign has been the hottest that Texas has had in years. Governor Allan Shivers is running for a third term while Judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin is running his second race, trying to unseat the Governor.

A vast amount of mud has hidden the real issues of the campaign, each side attempting to show that his candidate is the best equipped for the office of Governor.

All 10 polling places will be opened in Randall county. In box No. 1, L. W. Cole is judge of the election, and votes will be cast at the American Legion Hall.

Box No. 2 will vote at Jowell school, with J. J. Leavitt holding the election.

No. 3, Ralph, Conway Kuykendall.

No. 4, Ceta, E. W. Schaeffer.

No. 5, Laddehoff, Lynn Bennett.

No. 6, Hollywood, H. W. Burrus.

No. 7, Wildorado, L. E. Mason.

No. 8, Umbarger, W. P. Janssen.

No. 9, Alice Landergin School, J. M. Durett.

No. 10, Lamar School, Perry Powell.

The Canyon News will hold its regular election party, with a bulletin board in the east window. All election judges have been notified to get their returns in early. The ballot is short, containing only five names, and will be easily and quickly counted.

The following is the ballot:

For Governor: Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough.

For Supreme Court Justice: Brewster and Scott.

For Court of Criminal Appeals: Davidson. (Allan Haley withdrew his name from this race, and it is therefore necessary to elect Davidson).

Miller Gives Requirements For Students

J. E. Miller, high school principal, gives the following information regarding the standing of students in the high school:

The 1954-55 school term will begin with registration of high school students starting at 10:00 a. m. at the high school building Monday, August 30. The registration periods are arranged as follows: Seniors: 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Monday, August 30; juniors, 1:30 p. m. to 4:00 p. m., Monday, August 30; sophomores, 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Tuesday, August 31; freshmen, 1:30 p. m. to 4:00 p. m., Tuesday, August 31.

Each student will pay an activity fee of $1.00 at the time of registration. This fee covers the cost of seven assembly programs to be presented by Southern School Assemblies of Dallas. Students who have outstanding accounts must clear them before they can begin actual registration.

New students should have their former school forward a transcript of their work to the Canyon High School Principal's Office, Box 899, Canyon.

Classification of students is based on the number of credits completed prior to enrollment. The number of credits needed for the various classification are: Senior: at least 12 credits; junior, at least 7½ credits; sophomore, at least 3 credits; freshmen, less than 3 credits.

No student's classification is changed during the school term, except that in case a junior has completed 14½ credits at mid-term and is permitted to enroll for 2½ credits the second semester. In this case the student can graduate and will be given senior classification sometime during the fourth six-weeks period. Seventeen (17) credits are required for graduation.

4-H Bake Show Held Wednesday

Virginia Friemel, a 9-year-old 4-H club girl from Umbarger, was high scoring individual in the 4-H bake show held in Canyon Wednesday. She ranked first on biscuits and second on banana bread. Norma Lou Henderson of Pleasant Jo club ranked first with banana bread.

Alby Ann Kuehler ranked first among senior girls and Betty Hoffman was named to represent the county in the Baking Queen contest at the Tri-State Fair. All girls turned in records of club work, and records were considered in determining the rank of the senior girls.

In biscuit making Elizabeth Haynes ranked second, Marie Koch third, and Janey Meyer fourth.

For banana bread Beatrice Wieck ranked third. Ribbons were given as follows: Biscuits—blue ribbons to Virginia Friemel, Elizabeth Haynes, Marie Koch, Janey Meyer, Betty Hoffman; red ribbons to Evelyn Hoffman, Mary Hoffman, Mary Phyllis Beckman, Sharon Ann Cranmer, Aline Stocker, Alby Ann Kuehler; white ribbons to Margaret Westhoff, Norma Lou Henderson, Deanna Stocker.

Banana-nut bread—blue ribbons to Norma Lou Henderson, Virginia Friemel, Beatrice Wieck, Mary Hoffman, Evelyn Hoffman, Marie Koch, Alby Ann Kuehler; red ribbons to Junelle Bauer, Deanna Stocker, Anita Fischbacher, Aline Stocker, Mary Phyllis Beckman; white ribbons to Janey Meyer, Elizabeth Haynes, Margaret Westhoff, Sharon Ann Cranmer, Betty Hoffman.

Marie Koch ranked second high individual among juniors, and Norma Lou Henderson and Elizabeth Haynes tied for third place in the same group.

In the bread judging contest conducted with the bake show, Sharon Cranmer, Junelle Bauer, and Norma Lou Henderson received blue ribbons; Elizabeth Haynes, Patsy Robinson, Virginia Friemel and Norma Lou Henderson, red ribbons; Junelle Bauer, Deanna Stocker, Virginia Friemel, and Janey Meyer, white.

Gov. Shivers Not Interested In Mission Times

In spite of the campaign which has been made against Governor Allan Shivers by Ralph Yarborough for "giving" a printing contract to his own paper in Mission, the records show that neither Mr. and Mrs. Shivers have owned stock in the Mission Times since February, 1941.

So far as making any profit from state printing contracts is concerned, Joe Cook, publisher of The Times admitted to the Newsman that this was impossible. He was merely trying to hold his force together during the drought and freeze which had wiped out the citrus crop in the Valley.

This was two years ago when Mr. Cook spoke before the Texas Press Association that he admitted no money was to be made from State contracts for printing because of the absurdly low prices received.

Austin printers who bid on these State contracts know in advance that they are losing money on the deal, but do so in order to hold their full forces together in slack times. The Newsman was told this by all Austin printers who have had state contracts.

After six years of state printing, and observing printers at Austin, we have refused to bid on these contracts simply because no printer can break even on them.

The typical Yarborough smear is being carried to all parts of Texas this week on an issue which is not an issue in the welfare of Texas.

Two White Women From New York Work the Negroes

No wonder the Yarborough forces carried the Carver box in Amarillo by a 16 to 1 majority!

Two white women from New York City worked for a week among the Negroes of Amarillo just before the July primary, urging the blacks to vote for Yarborough.

This is just one of the tactics used in the race for Governor of Texas used by outside forces in an attempt to defeat Governor Allan Shivers.

Buffalo Squad To Number Near Fifty Heavies

West Texas State's 1954 Buffalo football squad will turn out here Sept. 1 to begin workouts designed to ready Coach Frank Kimbrough's charges for the nine-game schedule which opens Sept. 18 in a home battle with the McMurry Indians.

Some 31 varsity players, including 20 sophomores, are expected for the two-day sessions, and the Buff coaches look for more than 30 freshman hopefuls to arrive on the campus early to seek positions on the squad. By the time regular classwork begins at WT on Sept. 16, the total of players should be about 50.

Match Play Tourney To Start Sept. 5

A match play golf tournament at the Country Club is to start on Sept. 5. All players interested must have their scores posted by September 1.

Two qualifying scores must be posted, according to Art Roberts. Post scores on the chart in the club house at the City Club.

Labor Racketeers CIO Demand Members Vote for Yarborough

No one is blaming the laboring man for voting for whom he pleases as the next Governor of Texas. Yet when the CIO sends its top flight racketeer labor bosses into Texas and directs the campaign of one candidate for Governor it is time that Texans give the toe of their boot to the intruders and tell them where to go.

Governor Shivers frankly gave the names of the CIO labor bosses who directed the Yarborough campaign and left for their homes in Detroit and Washington on the eve of the first election, thinking that their job was ended. They thought that the people of Texas would be fools enough to swallow all of the vicious campaign propaganda which had been spread during the campaign. They were fooled by the vote of the people of Texas who resented CIO interference.

We have a continuation of the same program during the present run-off campaign. CIO is spreading fear and spreading mud in places where it will do the most good.

As an illustration of how the campaign is being run, Yarborough published just one little five inch ad in the newspapers of Texas. He would not have published this had not Vern Sanford sent out a circular letter to the members of the Texas Press Association telling them that he had tried in vain to interest the Yarborough campaign headquarters to do some advertising.

During the run-off campaign, the Shivers group has authorized ads in every issue of every weekly newspaper in Texas.

It may be safely assumed that the Yarborough crowd is afraid of publicity. Their candidate is playing polly parrot, saying the words which are placed in his mouth for the CIO organizers from the east. They are crying out that Governor Shivers is a Republican simply because he saved the tidelands for Texas. Yet every Texan knows that CIO is a labor organization without a party. The labor racketeers play Democratic when they think they are on the popular side; and they are Republican when it is popular.

One man reported the other day that AFL labor in his community in the Panhandle was for Governor Shivers, while CIO membership was solidly for Yarborough. CIO has exacted a pledge of $1 each from each member in Texas to fight Governor Shivers. It matters not who may be his opponent, or what their polly parrot candidate says or does, just so he is smearing the Governor.

Governor Shivers has been before the public so long that it is useless for them to attack his record of achievement. They are resorting to smear and have never published one thing either against the Governor or in favor of their candidate for fear of libel.

E. O. Greer Tells the Story Of Port Arthur and CIO

When E. O. Greer of Port Arthur wrote to the Amarillo News telling how CIO labor racketeers were ruining that city, the Yarborough crowd cried to high heaven that it was being smeared.

All right, let's take a look at the Panhandle and see what is going on.

Right here in Canyon, CIO has tried to organize the misguided clerks of Canyon. The same ones have rebelled and CIO leaves us alone.

In Amarillo every labor box which is controlled by CIO labor bosses is against Governor Shivers. Why? Simply because Shivers has fought labor bosses and is opposed to labor racketeers.

In Pampa and Borger and Dalhart the same is true. Where there is a strong CIO organization, there you will find the labor element voting for Yarborough.

As Mr. Greer of Port Arthur points out, the only way to keep labor bosses from the outside from taking over Texas is to defeat the bosses' candidate at the polls.

Greer knows good and well that no store or plant or office in Texas can long operate without labor. He is not a labor-baiter, or opposed to labor, but when CIO attempts to tell every business, or farmer and every laboring man when they can work and for what they can work—look out; a sad day is coming.

A Farmer Gives His Opinion As to What Will Happen

The other day we heard a farmer say:

"It looks pretty strange to me how farmers will fall for all of the promises that have been put out in this political campaign. It seems pretty strange to me when CIO tells us that the labor bosses are going to organize the farmers and the small business houses of Randall county.

"I am just wondering what the average farmer, like myself, will think at harvest time when his truck drives up to an elevator only to be told that he cannot unload until tomorrow because CIO controls this elevator and it is against CIO rules to work a minute after 5 o'clock without time and a half pay.

"Yes, and I wonder what the farmer will say when he drives back home and finds all his hands have quit for the day simply because it is 5 o'clock, and he has to do the chores, because CIO says that he cannot hire help to work more than eight hours per day, regardless of the need.

"So far as I am concerned, me and my family will vote to keep Mr. Shivers in office. The Yarborough crowd is composed of the wrong kind of people."

One Vote—Your Vote—May Decide the Race for Governor

One vote may decide whom you shall have as YOUR GOVERNOR for the coming two years. That vote may be YOUR VOTE.

Ever stop to think about that!

It took just 87 votes to elect a United States Senator from Texas.

A State Representative was elected from this district a few years ago by a majority of only 16 votes.

If only a few more of the absentees had gone to the polls in July, there would not have been a run-off on August 28.

YOUR VOTE may be the deciding VOTE on August 28.

Be sure that you cast this vote, and do not lay down on the job.

Pipelines Are Free From Taxes Under Court Decisions of Years

Ralph Yarborough says that he will pay the expenses of his expensive program by taxing the pipe lines. Either Mr. Yarborough is dumber than he looks and acts, or he is being fed a big dose of sleeping powders.

For 25 years the legislature of Texas has been trying to increase the tax on pipe lines. They have always failed, because the courts have put a crimp on every bill passed by the legislature.

Mind you, the Governor of Texas has no influence over pending legislation, other than to speak his mind. The legislators are jealous of their power and their privilege to pass bills.

The Speaker of the last House was opposed to increasing teachers pay. He fought the bill, but it passed in spite of his protests, and the fact that he made just one speech during the session and this was against the teachers pay increase.

But the Speaker kept the House from passing the necessary additional tax to pay the teachers increased pay bill. If the Supreme Court had not disapproved the increased tax measure, the teachers would have received their pay long before they did. This is strictly a New Deal Supreme Court.

The teachers are banned together fighting Governor Shivers because CIO manipulated Candidate Yarborough told them that Shivers vetoed this pay increase. As a matter of record, the Governor did not veto this increased pay bill, as it never reached his desk. The Comptroller rejected the claim simply because the legislature failed to pass needed legislation to pay the bill.

Yarborough, the fair-haired boy of CIO fame, says that he will see to it that the pipe lines pay the bill. He does not know that the legislators have been studying for 25 years how this amount could be saddled on gas shipped by pipelines from Texas.

Yarborough knows that a sales tax is the only solution to his problem of vague promises as to what he shall do—if and when the legislature will abide by his one man rule in Austin.

Fortunately the voters of Texas will take care of the case of Mr. Yarborough on August 28.

The Canyon News Chided For Support of Governor Shivers

The Canyon News was taken to task last week in our enthusiasm for the re-election of Governor Shivers by The Ralls Banner.

Most of the editorial space of the Banner was devoted to a discussion of the Newsman. As a matter of record, let us say that so far as this newspaper is concerned no better subject could be selected; and so far as our support of Governor Shivers is concerned, the position of the Ralls newspaper did not alter the situation. So long as The Banner was discussing The Canyon News, no one else was touched and that is okay with us.

One paragraph in the Banner was really amusing. The writer asked how we knew that the Negroes voted for Yarborough since there is the secret ballot in Texas. All that we know is what we read in the newspapers, and this was clearly demonstrated right here at home. The Carver box in Amarillo, all Negroes, supported Yarborough 179 to only 11 for Shivers. The same proportion was carried out in other boxes in other counties where there is heavy Negro centralization.

The same information was printed in all newspapers in Texas which carried detailed election returns.

Go ahead and vote for Yarborough, if you see it that way; but so far as we are concerned we shall stay with clean government and continue to support Governor Shivers.

State Printing Is a Joke—If You Like Non-paying Jokes

Ralph Yarborough is making a lot of noise about the "luscious" State Printing contracts which he assured Governor Shivers awarded to the Mission Times.

So far we have never heard or seen a work of condemnation of Joe Cook, the publisher, or the Times which the Shivers family controls.

The charge makes good reading, and a fine smear subject.

So far as the actual printing is concerned, any printer in Texas who knows anything about state contracts knows that the Board of Control lets these contracts to the lowest bidder, regardless of where he is located, or what kind of equipment he has.

If you don't believe these statements, just get yourself a plant and bid in one or more of these "luscious" contracts and go broke. After trying the game, we know

Many towns in Texas have derived their names from Indian sources, and in most cases some colorful or unusual story lies behind the christening.

Eagle Lake, in the South Texas county of Colorado, is one of these—its name steeped in several legends handed down from that warlike tribe of coastal aborigines called the Karankawas.

The tale centers around a great eagle which built her nest in a mighty sycamore tree on the west bank of the lake near the town, and a romantic version of the story, told by H. Braden, appeared in the Eagle Lake Headlight. The gist of the legend is this:

Long ago, two warriors loved the beautiful, dark-eyed daughter of a chief, and the chief conceived a plan of determining which suitor should have the hand of the fawn-like damsel of the woods. He told them that the first one to bring him the young eaglets from the nest, alive and without cutting down the great sycamore, should have his daughter.

Without hesitation, both young warriors started up the tree at the same time but, before climbing far, collided—the result being a quarrel, followed by a fight in which they killed each other.

The chief's daughter had waited at the camp to hear which of the suitors had been successful but at last, becoming alarmed over their long absence, she hastened to the lake—where, seeing the man of her choice dead, she became so grief-stricken that she seized a lance and plunged it into her own breast.

Ever afterward (so the story goes) the place was regarded with superstitious respect by the members of the tribe, and it is said that once every moon—in the time of the Karankawas—the young men and maidens assembled at the spot to consecrate it with a memorial of flowers for the young lovers.

There is still another version, related by Braden—this being that Gray Cloud, one of the warriors, reached the nest first and was attacked by the fierce mother eagle after he had seized one of the eaglets. Sonoto, the other Indian, grasped this opportunity to upset his rival and hurl him to the ground—a hundred feet below—whereupon, the chief's daughter—her name was Forest Flower—leaped into the lake and was drowned.

West Texans Home After a Long Tour East

(Editor's Note: Some 70 West Texas State College geography students last week returned from an extended field tour of the eastern part of the United States and Canada. This is the last installment of a description of their travels.

After five fascinating and highly educational days spent in the provinces of Quebec and Ontario, Canada, group one of the WTSC Geography Tour is now back on United States soil. In the course of our more than 1,000 mile trip through the richest and most densely populated section of this homeland of our neighbors to the North, so much has been seen and done that it is impossible to do more than hit the high spots.

The geography of this region, akin to that of our New England states, is in sharp contrast to that of our High Plains of Texas. In the heart of the Glacial Age, the area offers excellent examples of the effects of this great upheaval of nature some millions of years ago. The mountains are worn smooth, glacial rock is exposed throughout the region, and the land is hilly and undulating with many rivers, lakes and fertile valleys. The soil is rich but the very nature of the rough rocky terrain prevents farming on a large scale. All along the St. Lawrence Valley, particularly in the province of Quebec, we saw hundreds of farms that weren't much wider than a large city block in our part of the country. This situation dates back to the days of early settlement when the land grants were laid out so that each man would have a share of the river front, which was his "highway."

Farming is intensive and principally of the subsistence type, with fruits, vegetables, hay and forage crops, dairying and poultry raising predominating.

Our itinerary included the cities of Quebec, Montreal, Kingston, Toronto, and Niagara Falls. Quebec, the old French Provincial capital, was founded in 1535 by Jacques Cartier. Guided tours through the city and to nearby points of interest gave us an insight into the history and beauty of this "Cradle of Canada's civilization." For over 200 years, Quebec was a French colony and the almost 200 years of English rule since, have done little to obliterate the French influence. Ninety per cent of the people still speak the French language and cling tenaciously to their religion and customs. We found practically everything written in French and a few times got ourselves into places where sign language had to be brought into play, but the people were most gracious and patient and we managed to spend our money here as easily as other places, despite the language handicap.

On August 5, we arrived in Montreal, capital and largest city of the Dominion. It also has the distinction of ranking second only to New York City as the largest American seaport, despite the fact that it is located a thousand miles from the Atlantic Ocean, up the St. Lawrence River. It, too, is a quaint city, with an old world atmosphere that has not been marred by its metropolitan air.

Perhaps to us "landlubbers" of West Texas the biggest thrill was all the water! We drove for miles along the mighty St. Lawrence River and the Northern shore of Lake Ontario, following the great St. Lawrence Seaway. As we watched hundreds of freight boats making their way through the locks and ship channels, we came to realize more fully the vast impact of this marvelous inland waterway upon the industrial growth and development of our own nation as well as Canada.

One of the most pleasant and memorable experiences of our trip came on Thursday at Gananoque, Ontario, where we enjoyed a 2½ hour cruise through the famous and picturesque Thousand Islands in the upper St. Lawrence River. There are approximately 1600 islands comprising the group. Sixteen of them are free public parks; the others are privately owned and dotted with palatial summer homes. This Venice-like 50 mile cruise almost beggars description, so breath taking is its beauty. A "homey touch was added when the ship's captain cruised slowly by the lovely summer home of a San Antonio, Texas, family who were standing in their yard. The group gave out with "The Eyes of Texas" and received a big hand! After the cruise we boarded our bus and drove on to Kingston, Ontario, to spend the night.

If we had chosen to "save the best for last," we could not have had a grander climax for our Canadian sojourn than America's scenic wonder, Niagara Falls, a sight unequalled in splendor. The framed falls provide a thrill long remembered as they funnel almost the entire volume of the Great Lakes—watershed of one-fourth the American Continent—tumultuously over the great abyss on its way to the Atlantic. At night, twenty four, 36 ft., colored searchlights, with a total of approximately 1 billion, 320 million candle power turn the falls and spray into a veritable fairyland of fantasy and delight.

Our few hours here were much too short to fully absorb and appreciate this mighty example of nature's handiwork, but we were grateful for even this brief glimpse.

Tonight we are ensconced in the Park Shelton Hotel in Detroit, Michigan, and our Canadian tour is a memory. It was a wonderful five days, long to be remembered, but is good to be back in the United States and homeward bound!

JOYCE HILL CIRCLE MEETS IN RAYMOND LUMRY HOME

Joyce Hill Circle met Tuesday morning, August 17, in the home of Mrs. Raymond Lumry with Mrs. Mary Sigman as co-hostess.

Theme of the meeting was "Open My Eyes." The meeting opened with the song "My Eyes That I May See." Mrs. Guy Harrison gave the devotional, "Dangers of Indifference," bringing out the thought "open my eyes that I may see, glimpses of truth thou hast for me."

Mrs. Sigman made a talk on "Family Talks of God." Mrs. Roberts discussed "Of It Be a Christian Heart." Meeting was closed by reading the poem "Recommendations for Degrees," followed by sentence prayers with Mrs. Penick closing the prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at the social hour.

ICEBOX VICTIM IMPROVES

Springfield, Vt. — Gary Smith, 5, who narrowly escaped death two years ago when he locked himself in an abandoned icebox for five hours, is slowly gaining in a fight to recover his health. Lack of oxygen in the box caused brain damage which left Gary virtually sightless and with only partial use of his limbs. He is now able to sit up in a high chair and move about in the baby walker.

FATTENING

A man visited a doctor as he was worrying about his heart. "Do you smoke much?" inquired the doctor. "About 15 cigars a day." "You'll have to cut down. It will be hard but try to be satisfied with one after each meal." A few weeks later the man returned for a check-up. The doctor complimented him on the improvement of his health. "You see, that's what happens when patients follow their doctor's orders." "Well, it isn't always easy to do," said the visitor. "Sometimes it's hard to eat 15 meals in one day."

"STANDINGDEER" DEAD

CHEROKEE, N. C. — Carl Standingdeer, probably America's "most photographed Indian," died here recently. A cluster of photographs which made Standingdeer famous, draped his coffin. Tourists, particularly children, passing through the Indian reservation, were delighted with the full-blooded Cherokee's full Indian appearance.

"Well, Your Honor," said the defendant, "it was like this. I was in a phone booth talking to my girl when this guy comes up and wants to use the phone. He opens the door, grabs me by the neck and tosses me out on my ear."

"Then you got angry?" asked the judge.

"Yes, a little," answered the man. "But I didn't get real mad until he grabbed my girl and threw her out, too."

A Tribute To Mothers!

Abraham Lincoln said, "All that I am, or ever can be, I owe to my mother." And that, we think, sums up what all of us think about our mothers. It isn't only on Mother's Day that we should revere the name and memory of Mother. Every minute of every day we should unstintingly show our love and endeavor to make her life easier and happier. If your Mother has passed on, show that her memory still lives in your heart. Visit the cemetery frequently and lay lovely living flowers on the sacred spot where she sleeps forever. This will be a token payment of all she did for you.

While a farm girl was milking a cow, a bull tore across the meadow toward her. The girl did not stir but continued milking. Observers, who had run to safety, saw to their amazement that the bull stopped dead within a few yards of the girl, turned around and walked sadly away.

"Weren't you afraid?" they all asked.

"Certainly not," said the girl. "I happen to know this cow is his mother-in-law."

State Capitol NEWS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN: Charges and counter-charges flew fast as the race for governor rounded the turn for the final lap.

Judge Ralph Yarborough, quick to accuse Allan Shivers of misdeeds, found fault with state printing contracts awarded to the Times Publishing Company of Mission because Shivers had been a stockholder in the company in 1946.

From Attorney General John Ben Shepperd came the retort that "I have investigated the whole transaction and there is nothing wrong with it." The contracts, Shepperd said, amounted to only about one per cent of the state's printing business and it went to the Mission firm on the basis of low bids.

Another Yarborough charge was that Shivers had withdrawn the Rangers from politically-hot Duval County.

This statement, said Ranger Captain Alfred Y. Allee, was "utterly untrue." Captain Allee testified that the Rangers are still in Duval County.

And Colonel Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, asserted that no request had been made to pull the law officials out of George Parr's domain.

Yarborough's political promises came in for attack. When he pledged himself, if elected, to support a Galveston County project — a $5 million bridge across San Luis Pass — a statement came from John S. Redditt of Lufkin.

Redditt, former chairman of the state highway commission, former state senator, and former president of the Texas Good Roads Association, said:

"In all my experience the Texas Highway Department has operated without this kind of political interference from the governor, the Legislature, or any other source. This policy has given Texas the nation's finest roads per dollar expended."

Yarborough Campaign
Otherwise, in his campaign speeches, Yarborough:

Promised to build 40 new dams in South Texas.

Charged that a "vast army of state employees" had been forced to leave their jobs and campaign for Shivers.

Five Generations

Four generations make a good record for a family but with the birth of little Larry Arnold Raburn 12 weeks ago a fifth generation was added to the family of Mrs. Fannie Stallings. Pictured from left to right are Mrs. Stallings, 76, of Canyon, Larry's great-grandmother; Mrs. Dora Houtchens, 59, of Dimmitt, Larry's great-grandmother; Mrs. Louise Boyd, 41, of Clovis, N. M., grandmother; and Mrs. Lois Rae Raburn, 20, mother, Needles, Calif.; Larry Raburn, 12 weeks.

Proposed the creation of a new Texas water board and advocated the investment by the state of $400 million in water conservation projects.

Charged that Shivers spent $2 million in his first primary campaign.

Shivers Campaign

In his campaign appearances, Shivers:

Rapped Yarborough for being "the only man I know of in Texas who has cast doubt on Texas' tidelands claim to the 10 1/2 mile limit."

Charged that Yarborough misled Negro voters in the first primary by announcing that he was for segregation and then later stating his opposition to the U. S. Supreme Court's segregation decision.

Told Port Arthur listeners in a public rally that people who represent Communist-dominated unions and opposed the present state law outlawing the Communist Party are supporting Yarborough.

Received praise from B. A. Stuflebe, Grand Prairie member of the State Prison Board, for cooperating to make the system "one of the best."

Big Vote Anticipated

Absentee balloting reports from over the state indicate a good possibility of the August 28th Democratic run-off primary bringing a heavier turnout than did the first primary, according to various county clerks.

In Austin, Travis County absentee ballots were coming in at a rate approximately five times that of the July primary, according to County Clerk Emilie Limberg.

A Short Ballot

Texas voters August 28th in the Democratic run-off primary will have one of the shortest run-off ballots in years.

Only two state-wide run-off races, the gubernatorial contest between Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough, and the Supreme Court race between Alfred M. Scott and Few Brewster.

There will be 21 district races composed of two run-offs for Congress, one for district judge, three for district attorney, and 15 for state representative.

New Bridge

Texas Governor Allan Shivers will be the chief speaker at August 21 ceremonies opening the $2.5 million surfside highway bridge at Brazosport.

The bridge is the only fixed span over the Intracoastal Waterway. It has a 78-foot vertical and 201-foot horizontal clearance for water traffic.

Road Bids

Bids for construction on 288 miles of farm roads and 106 miles of state and federal highways. A large portion of the total cost will go for expressway construction in Austin and Dallas.

Farm Income Up

Texas' farmers earned more during January-June of this year than during a like period last year although farm prices were declining, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has reported.

The bureau said that farm income was running nine per cent over that of the first six months of 1953. Increased revenue from cotton and cattle were primarily responsible for the increase, the bureau said.

TWINS SHARE MALADY

Cleveland, Ohio. — Identical twin sisters suffered the same disease only a few months apart, although for part of the time they were separated by 3,000 miles, according to a report by Dr. Francis J. Roberts and Dr. Earl W. Netherton, Cleveland Clinic physicians. The disease was sarcoidosis, a chronic infectious ailment affecting the eyes and face.

LAID OFF; NOW RICH

Sidney, Neb. — Eight months ago August Jurgens, 49, was laid off his job. When he couldn't find work in town, Jurgens decided to try farming again. Wanting only some land so he could "have a place to work," Jurgens swapped two houses for a plot of land. It wasn't long before an oil company asked if it could drill on his land — and brought in a gas well.

TRACTOR ON CHEST; LIVES

Council Bluffs, Iowa. — James C. O'Shea, 8, was riding his bicycle when his pants leg caught in the sprocket chain. The next thing he knew, he was off the bike and under the wheel of a 2,500-pound tractor. Although the tractor stopped on the boy's chest, he was only slightly bruised.

11-YEAR RECORD BROKEN

Alcoa, Tenn. — This town of about 6,500 recently had its first traffic fatality — in 11 years. An airman, stationed at a nearby base, was killed when a car in which he was riding crashed into the back of another automobile.

MAN STARVES; LEAVES $6,200

Bridgeport, Conn. — Police searched the basement flat of John J. Panso, 73, after he died of malnutrition in a local hospital. They found a banknote showing deposits totaling and two uncashed income tax refund checks for 1952-53 amounting to $200. When taken to the hospital, attaches said he apparently hadn't eaten in a week.

INNOCENT BYSTANDERS

Willimantic, Conn. — Passersby saw three men carry 250 suits out of a clothing store, load them in a car with Rhode Island license plates and drive away. It wasn't the routine mercantile transfer they thought, however. The men were thieves, who stole $15,000 worth of merchandise.

COPS GET IT, TOO

San Diego, Calif. — When a truck loaded with roofing nails hit an embankment and overturned on a freeway, nails were scattered everywhere. Before officers, aided by volunteers, could sweep up the 19 kegs of nails, about 50 motorists got punctures, including one police car which had all four tires flattened.

EXAGGERATED REPORT

Los Angeles. — When someone reported two men were about to jump from the eighth floor ledge of the Hall of Justice, police cars, ambulances and newsmen sped to the scene. Turned out that the two men were county jail trustees cleaning the pigeon-populated ledge.

A key member of the British Labor Party, seeing Socialist leaders off to their visit to Red China, was heard to remark: "Our Labor Party must keep to the left of Churchill's Conservative Government, and that's awfully hard to do these days."

ARMED

While getting her things together for a visit with her grandmother, little six-year-old Effie ran to the bookcase and brought back three books, "Little Black Sambo," "Peter Rabbit," and "Child Guidance."

"Effie," said her mother, "you won't need that 'Child Guidance'."

"Oh, yes I will," replied the child. "Grandma still believes in spanking."

REALLY HELPFUL

Monterey Park, Calif. — Calling for help when a fire started in her living room, Mrs. C. G. Grote really got it. The Fire Department responded with three trucks, followed by a police car, the city's public safety director, the city manager, the city budget officer and a Fire Department rescue unit. The fire damage—about $1,100.

SPIRITUAL . . . ADE

A dairy sued a minister for non-payment of a bill, but the case was thrown out when the parson's lawyer produced an analysis of the milk and assured the judge, "My client wanted the milk for drinking, not christening."

BETWEEN THE LINES

Tired after a busy day, a distinguished congressman in Washington handed the menu back to the waiter and said: "Just bring me a good meal."

A good meal was served and the congressman gave the waiter a generous tip. "Thank yo' suh," the waiter said, "an if yo' got any friends what can't read yo' jes' send 'em to me."

LIQUID MEASURE

A tourist in the Ozarks called to an old woman sitting on a porch, "How far is it to the nearest town?"

"Pa figgers it's about 10 miles thar, and about 12 back," she answered. "Which is on account of him walking straighter goin' than comin'."

avowedly against the Texas claim. He did nothing more than follow his natural inclination.

A man believing as Yarborough does is the perfect candidate for those who want the government to own our natural resources, to regulate and regiment our business, and to control and direct the very thoughts and activities of our private citizens.

Mr. Yarborough's past holds nothing to commend him to the landowners of Texas and it reveals a philosophy, which he still practices, that is repugnant to all persons believing in the freedom and dignity of the individual citizen and the integrity of his property rights. A candidate for governor who has sanctioned "title busting" has nothing to offer the landowners of this State.

I sincerely hope that each of you will cast your vote for Allan Shivers in the coming election. As early as 1939 Allan Shivers introduced and passed a bill fixing the Texas tidelands boundary at 27 marine miles off shore in an effort to head off the impending Federal land grab. After he had done all that could be done officially to support the Texas title, Allan Shivers asked for and got an expression from the presidential candidates in 1952 as to their attitude toward the Texas tidelands.

With the knowledge of how the candidates stood on this vital issue, he and an overwhelming majority of other Texans voted for the best interests of Texas. He deserves your wholehearted support.

A public official should defend the property rights of the citizens of this State. A governor should defend the State's title to its public domain and no man should be elevated to this office who would barter away our tidelands for the puny personal consideration of maintaining his party regularly. Let's elect a Governor who puts Texas first and paramount in his affections.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Outlawing Individual Communists
The question: "What is the most effective method of dealing with the communist threat?"

The answer: "By outlawing the individual communists."

The uproar that you read about during the last days of this Congress concerning the outlawing of the Communist Party, actually boiled down to nothing more than a play on words.

The entire controversy centered around an amendment offered by Senator Humphrey, of Minnesota, to the bill originally introduced by Senator Butler, of Maryland. Senator Butler's bill was primarily directed at depriving communist infiltrated unions of bargaining rights before the National Labor Relations Board.

Senator Humphrey offered an amendment to this Butler bill outlawing the Communist Party and imposing heavy fines for individual membership in that party or any of its affiliates, whether it was going by the name "Communist," or changed to some other name. This quickly passed the Senate, 84 yeas and no nays. This meant that the fat was in the fire.

The Communist Party had been outlawed and penalties had been declared against individuals belonging to such party or its affiliates. This was something that the administration had studiously avoided on the theory that to outlaw the Communist Party would mean that its members would go underground and would be much more difficult to catch or watch.

The bill then came to the House where an attempt was made by amendment to outlaw the Communist Party but striking out any penalty against individuals for being members of that party. The overall result of this would have been very little more than a slap on the wrist. The Communist Party would have been denied the right to go into court and do a few other things about which they care very little.

Communists are not interested in courts unless they control them, so denying them the right to go into one they did not control would have very little effect as punishment. However, those of us who have long supported outlawing of the Communist Party had no chance to put some teeth in the penalty clauses because of the rules of parliamentary procedure. Therefore, we passed the bill as it was, sent it back to the Senate, and immediately started the machinery to have it properly amended in the Senate.

This move was successful, and the Senate amended it, outlawing the individuals as members of the Communist Party and providing a penalty for being a member of that party.

My only objection to the penalty in the Senate bill was that it was not strong enough. In any event, the bill came back to the House, and a move was made to have conferees appointed to iron out the differences.

At this point Congressman Martin Dies arose and moved that the House instruct its own conferees to accept the provisions put into the bill by the Senate, outlawing the Communist Party and the individuals as members thereof, and creating a penalty. In my opinion, this was the real test vote to determine whether or not you really wanted to outlaw the Communist Party and settle the issue once and for all. The vote on this was 208 for outlawing the members as such and creating a penalty to deal with them, as against 100 who voted against the Dies motion.

The anti-Communist drive has been going on since the days of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, who served in the 1920's. That the Communist Party is a criminal conspiracy dedicated to the destruction of the democratic form of government is so widely advertised by the Kremlin itself and so well known to anyone who has had the slightest opportunity to study it, no one denies.

However, it has long been argued that to outlaw the Communist Party would be to partially destroy democracy. At first blush this argument might appear to have some merit, but even a surface study of communist intents and purposes reveal that here is a force bent on the enslavement of mankind, wholly void of any sense of fair play, and having not even the slightest regard for any laws, rules or regulations, a force to which a constitution is a contaminated piece of paper.

Informal Double Ring Ceremony Read For Erwin-Donnell Marriage Sunday

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES L. DONNELL

Gladioli decorated the altar of the Joseph A. Hill Chapel Sunday afternoon, August 15, when Shirley Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erwin who live southeast of Amarillo, became the bride of Charles L. Donnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Donnell of Canyon. Rev. Howard Bramlette read the impressive double ring ceremony.

Miss Laura Smith, organist, played appropriate musical selections and accompanied Miss Donna Erwin, cousin of the bride, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Donald Davis, sister of the bride, who served as matron of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a beige suit with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Richard Perkins served as best man. Leo Erwin, brother of the bride, and James Cundiff were ushers.

Accompanied to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a light blue linen suit with white accessories. Her light blue hat and the collar of the suit were accented with pearls and rhinestones. Her bouquet of orchids topped a small white Bible.

Mrs. Erwin, mother of the bride, wore a navy faille two-piece dress with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Donnell, mother of the groom, wore a navy linen two-piece dress with white accessories and a white camilia corsage.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was feted with a reception in the lounge of Randall Hall on the West Texas State campus.

After a wedding trip to Colorado the couple will make their home in Canyon.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Canyon High School and are now students at West Texas State.

Around the Town...

(By Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick)

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Goodman arrived back in Canyon August 12 after a five week trip to the east in which they covered 5,000 miles, seeing much wonderful country.

Much of their time was spent in sight seeing, and they report many interesting experiences. Their first was their drive between Oklahoma City and Tulsa on the newly completed Turner pike way. This highway is approximately 100 miles long and the toll is $1.40. The traffic can enter the pike at four different stations. All cross traffic crosses on overpasses. The Goodmans are highly in favor of these highways.

They drove through the colorful Ozarks, which they enjoyed, especially the leisure life of the natives.

They spent some time at Hannibal, Mo. where they went through the homes of Mark Twain and Becky Thatcher. These two lived across the street from one another. The character of Tom Sawyer in the book Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn was actually Mark Twain. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman went through the cave where Tom and Becky were lost and where they found Indian Joe. This cave is one half mile from the Mississippi river.

They enjoyed the beautiful scenery in Wisconsin and Minnesota. While in Wisconsin they drove over to Milwaukee to attend a big league ball game.

On their return trip they traveled through South Dakota where both of them had lived in their childhood. Mrs. Goodman visited the school where she had entered the first grade.

They visited Mrs. Goodman's 82-year-old mother while they were in Colorado, before returning home. Mrs. Goodman's sister, Mrs. Freda Dittmer, of New Plymouth, Idaho, came to Canyon with them to visit with them for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman said they were much impressed with the beauty of the territory they traveled.

While Mrs. John S. Humphreys was visiting in Nashville she found that some of her daughter's friends were making tablecloths and napkins of nylon. I tried it and find I can wash out the napkins, wring them out in a towel, fold them, place them on the table and they are ready for the next meal.

"And said 'Who touched my clothes?' Mark 5:30.

"As I touch many lives today . . . Some small, some great, O Lord, I pray . . . Let each get from me something good . . . The feeling of real brotherhood . . . An inspiration, bit of grace . . . A smile that brightens up a face . . . A gleam of faith in troubled sky . . . Encouragement to help one try . . . To live life noble, clean and fine . . . And merit, Lord, this day of Thine." —Julian C. Hyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Neff and daughter, Sue Lane, who used to live in Canyon, were back visiting with friends and Mrs. Neff's aunt, Mrs. J. J. Walker. The Neffs live in Omaha, Neb., now, and are proud grandparents. Their son, Earl Lock, has a daughter two years old and a son two and one half months old. Their daughter, Sue Lane, is a student in the Municipal University of Omaha. Mrs. Neff has just received her M.A. Degree and is continuing teaching. Mr. Neff is with the government.

Karen Sue Parker drove to Dumas with her father last Tuesday where she took the train to join Mrs. Parker's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cole of Pratt, Kansas, and from

If you are a man and wish you were "tall, dark and handsome," or if you are a woman and wish you were "tall, willowly and beautiful," and know you are not, you might find consolation in these words of Woodrow Wilson written in one of his lighter moments.

"For beauty I am not a star. There are others more handsome, by far."

But my face, I don't mind it. You see I'm behind it. It's the fellow in front gets the jar."

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Myers and children, Al Rushing, Barbara Kay and Elo, are in California visiting with Mrs. Myers' sister and Mr. Myers' brother and Elo said "To swim in the ocean."

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gardner and son, Richard, have moved to Canyon from Amarillo and will live in the new house Mr. Gardner built at 1702 8th Ave. Mr. Gardner is a general contractor and has built a number of houses in Canyon and will continue his building program. In the last world war Mr. Gardner served overseas as a paratrooper and Mrs. Gardner served as a registered nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey McCormack entertained the members of the school board and their wives, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gibson, with a very lovely outdoor supper at the picnic grounds on their ranch northeast of Canyon.

"Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." —II Corinthians 3:17.

There is much talk about using cotton these days and I am for it so is everyone else IF they get cotton to where it is as serviceable as nylon. Mrs. Joe Winstead said the other day: "I would be glad to use cotton if they would make it more serviceable." She said, "I have two boys and they wear nylon shirts. I wash their shirts in the washing machine with the machine of clothes that require warm water, wring them out in a towel, hang them on coat-hangers in their closets and they are ready to wear without ironing, and that to a busy housewife is worth a lot." Mrs. Winstead has four children, two girls and two boys, and that means she is busy.

One of the newest gadgets to save time for the busy housewife is the new electric ice cream freezer that fits in the freezer part of your refrigerator. It's a quart and a half size, and the electric cord plugs into the nearest outlet and the cord is closed right in the door without any harm because of the soft rubber gasket on the door. In using the home-aid electric ice cream freezer, you eliminate the fuss and muss that you have with the ordinary hand freezer. No ice, no salt, no repacking the cream in your freezer after it's finished. You can simply take out the motor part of this freezer, cover the container with a clear plastic cover, and store the ice cream in your freezer compartment until it is all gone.

Canyon's new grade school building is progressing better than expected. If no difficulties arise it could be completed by Dec. 1st. The building will have 24 grade rooms, all 28x30 and will comfortably take care of 30 students each.

The auditorium is a large room 50 feet by 70 feet with a stage 30 feet deep by 50 ft. wide, and will be used as an auditorium and gymnasium. It will seat 400 people. The cafeteria, a large room 42 feet by 70 feet, which is across the hall from the auditorium, can take care of 300 to 350 at one time.

An addition has also been added to the high school building adjacent to the north side. A home-making department, science room and gymnasium have been added. The cafeteria has been repainted, the kitchen remodeled, enlarged, and air-conditioned.

The members of the school board who are W. R. Crow, president of the board, Walter Graham, Wilford Taylor, Jr., A. C. Haley, Jr., Newton Crain, Bailey McCormick, and Roy Byrd, Jr., and the superintendent of the Canyon schools, Joe Gibson, have worked hard and conscientiously at this project and deserve much praise for their work in behalf of the school system of Canyon. As you know, no doubt, the school board works without pay.

In 1951, before Mrs. George Cox died, Mr. and Mrs. George Cox, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gist, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt La Roe of Happy went down into Old Mexico on a fishing trip. They were fishing on the Panuco River, a very clear and beautiful river about 20 miles from Tampico, and were looking for a place to camp on this river. A Mexican family took them into their home, giving them their best rooms, furnishing them with gas and oil for their boat, furnishing them their meals, and would not take a cent for all they did for them, so these three families decided to give them an electric ice-box as a parting gift. The family was overwhelmed. Mr. Cox said they just couldn't believe this could happen. That they could never in their lives expect such a luxury.

The Panuco River furnishes the water for Tampico, a city of 125,000 people, and the families they stayed with are the engineer and the supervisor of the water system who received $25 a month for their work.

They had two daughters who were graduates of high school and were stenographers, receiving $25 a month, but if these girls could get work with an American oil company they could get $250 a month. Both girls spoke good English and George Cox, who has been going back to fish every year and says he will as long as he is able to, brought these two girls, Miss Elma DeLaportie and Miss Theresa San Tayo to Canyon, put them in Randall Hall, furnished all their needs and enrolled them in West Texas State. Here they took business administration and typing.

They visited for nearly one semester, as they were too late to enroll and then went the other semester. Both have returned to Mexico but have not as yet been employed by any of the oil companies. Mr. Cox sent them subscriptions to two American magazines, and says that if they have not found employment by the time he goes fishing again, he will bring them back for another semester's work.

Mr. Cox says times are very hard in Mexico, that our dollar is worth $12.49 in their money and that he can get a man to take him fishing, taking care of his boat all day for 40 cents and that these men are glad to get the work. Mr. Cox says he has never known the meaning the word hospitality until he met these people.

The highest form of worship, and one that brings supreme happiness to the worshiper, is to do our ordinary work-a-day tasks as an act of devotion to Christ. —Rollin H. Walker.

There's no telling what these grandmothers who are teaching will do next. It seems they have been embarrassed by pupils knowing more than they do about aviation with the result that a group of teachers attended a course in aviation education. In this course they had to build and fly their own planes. Foremost among them was a 62-year-old grandmother teacher, who gayly launched her rubber-band powered model of a light plane.

Certainly is nice to see Clarence Thompson back at work in Thompson Hardware after his recent operation. Mr. Thompson says he is just doing fine, and is mighty glad that is over.

The children are thinking of going back to school, the mothers are thinking of the same thing, but, not quite in the same way.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Cox have been hunting and fishing friends for over 20 years. Mr. and Mrs. Cox will live at the Cox home at 1905 4th Ave. Mr. Cox says Mrs. Cox is as enthusiastic about beautiful dahlias as he is. Mr. Cox for years has raised as beautiful dahlias as can be grown and is most generous with them. Mr. Cox says if you don't give dahlias away they will quit blooming. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cox are happy over their marriage and wish them happiness.

She kept a diary of her telephone calls

HOW VALUABLE IS YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE? Recently we asked a group of telephone customers to help answer that question by keeping a record of all the calls they made and received for a week. Like others in the group, Mrs. Felicia Littlejohn (above) was genuinely surprised at how much she depended on her telephone service and how it helped her through busy days. Altogether, Mrs. Littlejohn made and received 58 local calls in the seven days and she estimates that they covered a total of 345 miles . . . all for a few pennies a call. SOUTHWESTERN BELL . . . APPOINTMENT KEPT

The big businessman had died and gone to—well, not heaven. Hardly had he settled down for a nice long smoke when a hearty hand slapped him on the back and into his ear boomed the voice of a persistent salesman who had pestered him so much on earth.

"Well, Mr. Smith," chortled the salesman, "I'm here for the appointment."

"What appointment?"

"Don't you remember? Every time I entered your office on earth you told me you would see me here."

OF COURSE

Ticket Buyer: "How did all the members of that stock company giving 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' get so rich? They are all wearing swell clothes and diamonds."

Ticket Seller: "Well, you know, they have a snow scene and the cost of white paper went up so high that they sold their snow scene and made lots of money."

Senator Daniel Seeks National Library of Papers

Senator Price Daniel, on behalf of himself and Senator Lyndon Johnson, has introduced in the Senate a bill providing for the establishment of a National Library of Weekly Newspapers.

In a speech on the Senate floor Daniel said that the bill would help to preserve that great portion of the true history of our nation which is recorded in pioneer weekly newspapers and in currently published weekly papers of the United States.

"During the early years of our nation's history we had only weekly newspapers," Daniel said. "Even today, the educational, social, political and religious history of a great portion of our population can be found only in the files of these weekly publications."

Daniel said that the only such library now in existence was established by Garland R. Farmer of Henderson, Texas, owner and publisher of the Henderson Times. Farmer, a weekly newspaperman for over 25 years, has with his own funds established a library and collection of weekly newspaper files and is carrying on a national campaign in support of the proposed legislation. He has offered to make his collection and library available for this purpose. Congressman Brady Gentry of Tyler, has introduced a similar bill in the House of Representatives. The purpose as stated in the legislation is to establish a library under the management of a director to be appointed by the President. His job would be to collect, catalogue, file, duplicate, preserve, and make available for interested citizens, schools, libraries, and others interested, the original files of microfilms of weekly newspapers throughout the nation. It would apply to newspapers printed before and after the date of the enactment of this legislation.

Daniel said that action on the legislation would not be possible until next session of the Congress, but he urged the Congressional committees and Executive agencies to study the proposal in the interim so that it may be acted on when Congress reconvenes next year.

Russell & Anderson Trucking Company Serves Area Well

Motor trucking is one of the most necessary services of any area, and one of the top firms engaged in this business in this area is Russell and Anderson Trucking Co., located at 3501 T-Ancor in Amarillo, and headed by J. O. Russell and Andy Anderson. This outstanding trucking concern is the center of activity because those who need its services know they can depend on the equipment and crews of this organization to get the job done.

They specialize in livestock transportation and operate under a state-wide permit on cattle and irrigation pipe to and from all points in Texas.

J. O. Russell and Andy Anderson are to be highly complimented on the close supervision they personally give every hauling job, seeing to it that the equipment is in the best of repair and that they get to the job on time and follow through until it is actually completed. And they have plenty of late model equipment and see to it that it is always ready to do the job.

Old customers recommend this popular trucking company to others who find that Andy Anderson or J. O. Russell or one of their representatives will be glad to advise with them on their trucking problems and that their estimates will be in line for hauling jobs.

We are glad in this review to include the Russell and Anderson Trucking Company and to extend to them our best wishes for continued success.

PLATFORM WITH SOLID FOUNDATION—Reprinted by permission of the Dallas News.

August, in the Southwest, is a month of many moods. First come the dog days, bright and hot — just some more of July. Then it is that we cling to our coolest cottons, the crispest salads and lightest desserts. We stay cautiously indoors after ten in the morning and before five in the afternoon. We glance listlessly at fall fashion notes, wonder if we'll ever again wear wool.

But no sooner do we settle into this tempo than August begins to change pace. At first it's only a hint: something we feel — or think we feel. It's like an echo — not purely imagined, not actually real. Anyhow we begin to remember the things we had planned to get done before fall. Better get busy, summer is getting away. We paw through the clothes closet for a dress that looks fallish, feels cool. We get out the sewing basket with an eye to snaps and buttons and sagging hems. But as the noon-day heat presses in through open windows and doors, we've forgotten what the morning might have said.

When the August moon is full, the nights begin to whisper, too. Cooler, softer, gentler — the lazy breeze denies the heat of the day. Then comes one August morning, maybe early, maybe late, when daylight no longer frightens the coolness away. And if we wake early, and walk softly, we catch a glimpse of Autumn as she brushes light fingertips over the willow and the apricot trees.

August in the Southwest has a personality all its own: the fulfilling of summer, a promise of harvest and crisp, cold days ahead.

City Park Is Sought by Citizens of Canyon

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce is proposing a City Park for Canyon and the plans appearing on this page have been prepared by Mark Miles of the Park Recreation Department of the City of Amarillo.

This plan shows the location of school property which is south of 10th Ave. and extends to 12th Ave. and on the east starts at 23rd St. or Highway 87 and extends west to 19th St. Property belonging to the City starts at 11th Ave. and extends south to 13th Ave. and is between 19th and 18th Streets. The City also owns a square block south of 12th Ave. bordered by 19th on the west and 20th on the east.

On City property plans show the following:

1. Amphitheatre, which would have lighted stage and a seating capacity of possibly 2500 people and could be used for band concerts, graduation exercises, Fat Stock and Dairy Shows, political rallies, Easter Sunrise services, revivals, lectures and numerous other activities.

2. Swimming pool with bath house which would pay its way and possibly help to pay off bonded indebtedness in less than ten years. It is claimed that the swimming pool in Dalhart cleared $11,000 last year.

3. Picnic tables with four rest rooms conveniently located.

4. Enough land for a completely lighted athletic field which would be a natural bowl with seating on east and south end, could be used for night baseball, track events, football, quarter horse racing, bicycle races and other sport events.

5. Parking areas for amphitheatre, swimming pool and sports events.

6. Wading pavillion and playground with shelter housing sand beds and other activities for smaller children.

7. Shuffle board courts, table tennis, horseshoes and game courts for volleyball and other similar sports.

8. Tennis courts; could start with four regular concrete courts. On school property we find mostly softball diamonds on which nothing permanent would be constructed in order to leave space for enlargement of school building as needed, but still giving additional recreational activities to the park which is very valuable to its success.

In later years a community building could be built and a complete recreational center could be established and all summer programs could be carried out without conflicting with college activities and would be centrally located for the entire town.

Every board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce for the last 40 years has had as one of the major items on its work program for the year trying to work out plans for a City Park.

Due to the growth of Canyon during the last ten years, the need for a park has increased yearly. Each time the problem came up it was curbed because of the lack of land suitable and cost of maintenance.

Two years ago the sewage disposal system became inadequate for the City and a new location was purchased and the new unit was completed this year. About the same time the need became urgent for a new elementary school. The school board bought land adjoining the old disposal unit and plans got under way to build a new school building.

of the Chamber of Commerce was quick to visualize the possibilities of a park on the land and immediately asked for a meeting with the City Commissioners to ask that the old sewage plant location be saved for a City Park. The Commission assured this committee that this land would not be sold but due to water supply and other problems arising felt that the project was too much a venture at that time.

This year found the city with a new sewage disposal unit, plenty of water, a new school building started and a newly elected mayor and commissioners. The Chamber of Commerce again asked for a meeting with the Commissioners and talked of possibilities and asked for permission to have a set of plans drawn for the development of the old sewage land. The committee was given a go-ahead and told that it was for the city taxpayers to decide.

Mark Miles of the Park and Recreation department of the City of Amarillo was contacted and he received permission from his City manager to draw plans for this park. A contour drawing of city property was made at no cost to the Chamber of Commerce. This, with a city map, a plot plan of the new school building, was used by Mr. Miles to prepare the above plan.

Realizing that recreational facilities around a park are necessary to the success of a park, the school board was the scene for another meeting and permission was granted for the use of playgrounds adjoining the park. All members were enthusiastic about the plans and hoped that it would be possible for them to be realized.

Chamber of Commerce is now asking for the approval and aid of all citizens in further planning and for a petition asking the city commission to call an election for this purpose.

Meetings have been arranged for this week to formulate plans by which this project can most economically be developed. After this detailed survey the amount of bond issue necessary and the cost to each taxpayer will be announced within the next two weeks.

The Army now offers recruits a guarantee on school.

The tea table was laid with a beautiful imported hand-made lace and linen cloth, and centered with a low bowl of pink and white roses. Mrs. Samuelson's sister and niece, Mrs. Guy Blanton, and her daughter, Marjorie Blanton, of Amarillo, served at the tea table where punch, cakes, decorated with pink roses, pink and white mints, and nuts were served.

Mrs. F. A. Blanton, sister-in-law of Mrs. Samuelson's, was in charge of the guest book. The guests were given favors of match folders with the names of the bride and bridegroom, "Anna Lou 'n Ebert," printed on them.

The home was decorated with the bride's chosen colors, pink and white.

Mrs. Samuelson served at the beautifully appointed table which was laid with an embroidered cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations. Iced coffee, open faced sandwiches, sand tarts, broiled olives, and from a watermelon basket cantaloupe and watermelon balls were served. Miss Samuelson and her mother wore pink and white feathered carnation corsages, the gift of the hostess.

About 35 guests called to wish Anna Lou happiness.

FHA Officers Plan Activities for Year

Executive board of the Canyon Future Homemakers of America met in July and planned the club's activities for the year of 1954-55. The book has been mimeographed and will be ready for all members when school starts. This board is composed of all the officers, headed by June Davis, president.

The group will meet the first Thursday in September to appoint committees and to further plan for the future. A plaque from this organization will be hung in the high school and each year an outstanding FHA girl's name will be inscribed on the plaque as one of the new activities added this year.

Another will be a social honoring ex-FHA members. Members of this board are Marcus Robinson, vice-president; Virginia Leake, secretary; Janis Wright, treasurer; Nelda Coffee, historian; Nancy Raye Tomlinson, pianist; Janet Taylor, Theresa Mickey, and Virginia Cook, sergeant-at-arms.

Local homemaking department was cited for the excellent program carried in 1954-55 for publicity and for the FHA program at the recent state homemaking teachers meeting in San Antonio. Mrs. Long, Sr., high school homemaking teacher, assisted the registration state committee in registering the 1,000 teachers in attendance. She also served as recorder of one of the group workshops.

Mrs. Long and son, Bill, went by car sight-seeing on the way down and back. Mrs. Penick, junior high school teacher, flew down with several other teachers from this area. The meeting was in the form of a workshop where work was done in formulating a state curriculum guide in the field of home and family life education.

BANK DEPOSITS

Deposits in the nation's 528 mutual savings banks passed the $25,000,000,000 level for the first time at the end of June and were well on the way to a total of $26,000,000,000. Deposits rose $1,042,000,000 in the first half of the year, or 3 per cent more than they increased in the corresponding period of 1953. A good part of the gain is attributed to the fact that interest-dividend payments were 30 per cent greater than they were a year ago.

TAX TURN BACK

Congress has passed and President Eisenhower has signed a bill under which the Federal Government will turn back to the states a larger share of unemployment compensation taxes collected from employers. Now, the Government retains for administrative expenses, three-tenths of one per cent of tax collections.

JOBS STEADY

Despite an expected dip, employment remained steady from June to July. Unemployment was counted by the Bureau of the Census as 3,346,000 in the second week of July, a drop of 1,000 from the corresponding week of June. Total employment was estimated at 62,148,000, a rise of about 50,000 over the month, but still 972,000 less than the corresponding week in July, 1953.

President Eisenhower's offer of food for flood victims has been accepted by the Communist East Germany.

U. S. Senator

Debt Limit

The Senate reluctantly agreed to raise the ceiling on the national debt from 275 billion dollars to 281 billion dollars, after Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, fiscal expert and vigorous advocate of governmental economy, urged the increase.

Senator Byrd led the fight last year against the Administration's proposal to increase the debt limit by 15 billion dollars, and I supported his stand. In agreeing to a temporary increase — for only one year — the Virginia Senator made it clear that he did so because it was unavoidable to keep the Treasury from breaking through the 275-billion-dollar ceiling between December and March.

Economy Needed

Senator Byrd urged the Administration to return to its quest for a balanced budget despite the troubled international situation. "This period of international crisis may continue for years," he said. "We must live with it, and we must adapt our financial affairs to it."

The Senator also pointed out that his opposition to a larger and permanent increase in the debt limit was not motivated by any desire to embarrass the Administration. "To the contrary," he said, "the effort to hold the lid on the debt is to strengthen the Administration's hand for economy, leading to the balanced budget which the President sacredly pledged."

Senator Byrd made good hard sense. He usually does.

Bigger Debt

Facts released by the Commissioner of the Public Debt show that the national debt is now 18 billion dollars more than it was when the present Administration took over.

In fact, figuring the public debt on the same basis that has been used in the past, it now stands at the highest point in its history.

The present Administration adopted a different method of figuring interest on savings bonds, entering on the books only the current value of the bonds. In the past the debt was figured on the basis of the bonds' maturity value. This is a legitimate bookkeeping method, no doubt, but it may have caused people to believe mistakenly that the national debt has been reduced in the last two years. It hasn't.

Incidentally, the only year in which the United States had no public debt was 1836.

Atomic Energy Bill

Along with other Senate Democrats, I felt two vital principles were involved in our refusal to accept the conference committee report on the Atomic Energy Commission bill.

First, this conference report would have seriously impaired the preference rights of REA cooperatives, municipalities and other public bodies to buy public power. Second, it would have nullified the provision for compulsory sharing of patents, which we wanted in order to prevent a few large firms from getting a stranglehold on this important source of energy.

So I voted with 47 other Senators to reject the conference report and return it to the Committee. The Senate amendments finally were accepted by the conference committee and included in the bill as enacted.

Amarillo Oil Mill Co. Boon to Area

No review of the agricultural interests of West Texas would be complete without mention of the Amarillo Oil Mill Company, manufacturers of a complete line of "RANCH HOUSE FEEDS" as well as cotton seed pellets, meal and cake, soy bean pellets and meal, and 21% protein range cubes. They are also buyers of wheat, milo and other grains.

"RANCH HOUSE FEEDS" are most efficient and contain only the purest ingredients and have proved their worth throughout the territory.

The aggressive officials of Amarillo Oil Mill Company, H. W. Allen, president; Jack W. Johnson, vice-president; and Lee Oates, secretary-treasurer, are men of wide experience and are always most cooperative in any worthwhile movement which tends to better agricultural and livestock conditions in the Panhandle.

The central location of this popular concern in Amarillo assures quick delivery of "RANCH HOUSE FEEDS" to all Panhandle towns as well as the accessibility of the elevator facilities to our grain farmers.

Much of the credit for the success of this company is due its president, Harvey W. Allen, who has been active with the company since its inception.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Several weeks ago we had a lengthy discussion with Clarence Cosby about Communism. Mr. Cosby, being a deeply religious person, is concerned about the dangers of Communism. It doesn't take much reflection upon this subject to understand why any Christian would be an enemy of Communism.

According to all the information we are able to get the Communists are teaching atheism in Russia. They hope to promote the atheist idea by showing the people that with atheism there are more sheaves for the people. In other words if you use everything you get for your own selfish purpose you have more material wealth. Imagine what life would be like without churches, and such organizations as the Red Cross, Polio Foundation, and the Salvation Army. We may complain about our charitable organizations but in serious discussions most people realize that these organizations are a great benefit to our nation.

A typical trick of the Communists was portrayed last week in Vietnam in which 40 demonstrators, all women and children, were killed. These demonstrators were Communists who were jeering anti-Communist soldiers at one of the Vietnamese forts. At the height of the demonstration some shots were fired back of the fort. The soldiers believing an order of "fire" had been given shot into the demonstrators. An investigation proved that the soldiers had fallen into the Communist trap because it was Communists who had opened fire back of the fort. Thus by getting some of their own people, all women and children, killed off the Communists gained some wonderful propaganda material in their own nefarious way. Although the party, it seems, will soon be outlawed here, this does not decrease the danger of the Communist threat to our nation.

There are a couple of things adding spice to the local life and that is the end of the final summer session of college and the new term soon to begin. By this time next week students will be getting back into the swing of public school. Then in a couple of weeks the fall semester of college will open and all the excitement of school daze, and just plain daze will be a part of the daily routine of life.

Peggy Bonds was happy last week, not because school is starting although that may be part of it, but the main thing was that she had received some nice pictures of her boy friend, James Scott. Scott, a headline basketball player, is one of the mainstays in Coach Gus Miller's West Texas State College Buffaloes.

George Stephens, one of the clerks in the tax office, has been working in the Amarillo branch during the past few weeks. George has had pretty rough sledding for the past week and it isn't because of no snow. His wife, Shirley, and their son, Ronnie, are visiting her relatives at Kingsville. Any man who has had a cute wife to serve him delicious meals for several years knows the plight of having to prepare his own meals.

Had a discussion with Dan of Dan's Store last week about advertising. The subject is one that requires a lot of thought on the part of the person advertising. It should be carefully planned to run consistently in order to be profitable to the business firm doing the advertising.

Now is the time for all faithful readers to continue reading this column. The following lines may be a bit corny but do have a bit of seriousness about them.

You don't have to turn the wrong knob under the shower to get in hot water.

One way to keep from getting old is to ignore traffic rules and regulations. Remember, there are old drivers and bold drivers but there are very few old, bold drivers.

Social Security

One of the most important measures acted on in the Senate as this session of Congress neared its end was a bill revising the Social Security system.

Social security coverage was extended to some six million additional persons. The President proposed to bring in ten and a half million more, but the Senate excluded some 3,600,000 farm workers and about 400,000 self-employed professional persons.

The bill increases benefits at least $5 a month for single retired persons and as much as $31.25 for some families. Benefits at present range from $25 to $168.75.

Social Security taxes will be increased $12 a year for employees and the same amount for employers. Taxes on self-employed persons coming under the law will increase $18 a year.

Provisions governing the earnings of retired persons were liberalized.

Personal

Barring unforeseen developments, this session of Congress will have ended by the time you read this.

It has been a privilege to bring you these reports during the last eight months. I appreciate the letters so many of you have written me about them. I am grateful to the several hundred newspaper editors who have published the reports regularly in their papers.

Thank you — and I hope to see you soon.

Chinchillas To Be Raised Here

Chinchillas need a cool climate and this is the reason for the air-conditioned garage. Mrs. Mullins has four pairs of the animals at present. Although she is starting the venture as a hobby, she hopes to turn it into a full time occupation which will earn her a living in the near future.

Canyon News Wins Place in the Record of Congress

Walter Rogers, Congressman from the 18th District of Texas, of which Randall county is a part, inserted an editorial from The Canyon News in the Congressional Record as follows:

Mr. Rogers of Texas. Mr. Speaker, under leave to extend my remarks in the Appendix of the Record, I call to the attention of the House a most pertinent editorial written by Clyde Warwick, publisher of The Canyon News, Canyon, Tex.:

FOOD WASHED DOWN THE RIVERS AS CONSERVATION NEGLECTED

Beefsteak and potatoes, roast duck, ham and eggs, and bread and butter with jam on it, are being washed down our rivers each year in the form of good rich farm topsoil.

Of course we don't see these items floating down the streams which are overflowed, but nevertheless they are going down, down the rivers, together with valuable water which we need in the future.

While all America is thinking about feeding the starving peoples of the world, it might be a good thing to stop and ponder what will happen when we cease to produce a surplus of food.

Right now there is plenty of food, with a vast store in the warehouses of the Nation. When our shortsighted policy prevails of refusing to conserve the soil of the Nation, we may reach this very point when food would be at a premium rather than a surplus on the market.

It makes us furious to consider all of the commentaries and the sage words of advice as to what we should be doing with our surplus food, when you consider the amount that goes into storage and the food in surplus amounts to so small a portion of the subsidies which are paid by the Government for this, that, and the other.

Tuesday of last week Herschel V. Anderson was given the Frigidaire Meritorious Award for customer service. Anderson explained that it was a district award. The area in which he services refrigerators goes from Amarillo south to Tulia and from Dawn east to Claude.

Anderson said he had been as far as Silverton in making Frigidaire service calls. Although he takes care of most of the service work himself, during the summer he had two assistants. He still has two, not the same two, but he hopes to keep both of the service men busy this winter as well as next summer.

The appliance business operated by Anderson is the one formerly operated by Farlow. Anderson began operating the business Sept. 3rd of last year.

90 acres less "piston rub"

...than "the other" leading truck, in every 10,000 miles of truck travel

Ford F-100 Pickup, GVW 4,800 lbs.

New Ford Low-Friction V-8 develops up to 16% more power...has 21% shorter piston stroke and 21% slower piston speed!

In every truck engine, there's the rub, rub, rub of piston rings against cylinder walls as pistons stroke up and down. "Piston Rub" means friction...friction that wears out your engine and cuts its usable power.

Ford reduces "Piston Rub" by shortening piston stroke. In the 130-h.p. Power King V-8, for instance, the piston stroke is 21% shorter than that of the other leading make. And, in 10,000 miles of truck travel, the Ford V-8 has the equivalent of 90 acres less "piston rub" per cylinder!

It stands to reason that Ford's reduction of "piston rub" and friction will mean gas savings, repair savings, and longer engine life.

Only Ford Trucks give you modern high-compression, Low-Friction, overhead-valve, deep-block engines in any size truck you choose. For complete details, see your Ford Dealer now!

WARNING!

TEXAS FARMERS-RANCHERS WARNED OF CIO LABOR PLANS

AUSTIN, Tex., Farmers and ranchers of Texas were warned this week that the CIO plans to organize the farm workers of Texas if its candidate wins the Governor's race.

This warning came from Governor Allan Shivers who charged that the backers of his opponents "want to turn the state government over to the same bunch that is trying to wreck Port Arthur." "One of the first things they would do is put one of their red-hot organizers from Port Arthur in as labor commissioner. Then every time a farmer or rancher wanted to hire someone he would have to go through the CIO."

Governor Shivers said there was no doubt in his mind that the aim of the CIO after the job of organizing industry in Port Arthur and along the Gulf Coast is finished is to begin organizing farm labor in all parts of Texas.

"You can imagine what will happen when the CIO starts dictating how many laborers are needed to plow ten acres of land, refusing to allow a man to work more than thirty-five hours a week during the harvesting season and telling how much a farmer can charge for his crop," he said.

The Shivers administration, the Governor said, has worked hard to help preserve and protect the rights of the working man.

"But as long as I am Governor, the professional labor bosses who have been sent to Texas from the East — specifically those in the CIO and its Political Action Committee — are not going to run our State Government," Shivers promised.

Shivers said the average working man in Texas appreciated good government and that they were not going to let CIO bosses and professional organizers from the East do their thinking — and voting — for them.
